ACTION ON PAY REVISION URGED

Sen. Jones Says Nothing Has Been Done With Report Made March 9.

Senator Jones, of New Mexico, today demanded that Congress take speedy action with reference to the report of the reclassification commission.

"This report was made March 12," said Senator Jones, "and nothing has been done about it. There is no question that Federal employees are being unfairly treated. Hundreds and thousands of them are leaving the service."

Senator Hoke Smith said that salaries 50 per cent higher are paid in Georgia than by the Federal Government for the same service.

Senator Phelps stated that the Federal Government is suffering because its service is no longer attractive to workers.

"None of the Federal employees is making an assault upon the Treasury," concluded Senator Jones. They are simply asking for relief and they must get it soon."

D. C. EMPLOYERS AIDING EX-YANKS TO GET JOBS

Knights of Columbus Canvassers Find 231 Vacancies Available For Service Men.

Washington, D. C., employers are responding generously to the canvassing of the Knights of Columbus employment service for former service men.

During the last week the K-C men visited 302 employers of labor and obtained 231 opportunities, all at a good living wage. One hundred and sixty-six ex-service men applied for these jobs, and of that number 166 were placed at last reports.

The balance of the jobs will be absorbed, together with additional opportunities obtained since the report was made, by the new applicants who are besieging the K-C employment office since it was announced that the Knights had raised the minimum wage they were asking for jobs for former soldiers.

The demand for summer help at holiday resorts is becoming brisk, and K-C employment secretaries in Washington, D. C., and all other cities are endeavoring to interest young ex-service men in agricultural opportunities.

ADULTS HUTCHINS WILL TO PROBATE

Justice Bailey's Ruling Ends Eight Years' Litigation Over $4,500,000 Estate.

After eight long years of trials in the various courts of the District and appeals to the Court of Appeals, which tribunal again returned the case for trial in the lower courts, Justice Bailey today admitted the will of Stillson Hutchins, millionaire philanthropist and publisher, to probate. The estate is valued at approximately $4,500,000.

The case was recently taken to the Court of Appeals by Lee Hutchins, who alleged that his father was mentally incapacitated from making a will, but it was shown that the son had received benefits under the will which he accepted without protest, thereby acknowledging the legality of the will.

Justice Bailey said: "I think that the language of the decision of the Court of Appeals in reversing this case indicates that the view of that court is that the verdict of the jury upon the issues of undue influence and misrepresentation is final. The caveat, therefore, will be dismissed. The order of February 7, 1920, in so far as it sets aside the verdict of the jury upon the issues of undue influence and misrepresentation, will be vacated and set aside."

IRISH CLAIM BARRY SHOULD BE HONORED

On the heels of the controversy over the exclusion of the names of Confederate heroes from the memorial amphitheater at Arlington, which nearly resulted in personal encounters on the floor of the House of Representatives last week, Americans of Irish blood have voiced protest at the omission of the name of Commodore John (Jack) Barry, the native of Ireland known as the "Father of the American Navy," from the same honor roll.

At a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom, at 601 E street, last night, a committee composed of Daniel Hasset, W. J. Keenan and Joseph Reeves was appointed to inquire of Congress why those in charge of the erection of the memorial denied honor to the first officer commissioned in the United States Navy.

Freedom For Prisoners.

The meeting also adopted resolutions prepared by a special committee on the subject of amnesty for political prisoners. In these resolutions the "people's republic" Branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom declares its adherence to American constitutional principles, including freedom of speech and the right of peaceable assembly.

The resolutions were drafted by President Roosevelt, George G. Downing, the Rev. James A. Geary, Edward Mitchell, and Edward Tucker.

The Rev. Dr. Levi M. Powers, pastor of the Universalist Church of Our Father, was the principal speaker at the meeting. He spent several years in England studying social conditions and took issue with the statement of Sir Auckland Geddes, recently arrived British ambassador, that England is the most democratic country in the world.

To Hold Memorial Service.

"That is England's idea," Dr. Powers said, "of what England wants other people to believe about her. She boasts of her capacity for self-respect and is, in truth, the most servile race on earth, each class looking up to the one preceding it."

A resolution of condolence in the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret J. Downing, was extended to President Downing. Mrs. Downing, who was one of the original Fenian women, had been a life-long worker in the cause of Irish freedom.

Memorial services will be held by the F. O. I. F. at Mt. Olivet Cemetery next Sunday at 3 o'clock for those Irish soldiers who died in American wars.

SOCIETY TO GREET AMATEUR ACTORS

When the curtain rises at the premiere of "The Craft of the Tortoise," the play to be given at the Belasco Theater tomorrow afternoon by the Drama League Players for the benefit of the National Victory Memorial, the score or more of Washington amateur thespians participating in the comedy will face a society audience much sprinkled with the dramatic and literary element of the city.

Washington has heard and read so much of this unusual feminist comedy, the work of Prof. Albert T. Tins, a local man. It has been called by some of the noted critics one of "the keenest of contemporary satirical comedies." Others have placed it in the same category of the works of George Bernard Shaw, excepting "Man and Superman" only as being of a superior quality of satire.

Mrs. Albert S. Burleson, wife of the Postmaster General, and Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, president of the National Victory Memorial Association, the aim of which is to build a mammoth memorial here, are the leaders in the movement to have as many Washingtonians as possible view the initial presentation of the play and from the sale of boxes and tickets to this time bid fair to have success mark their efforts.

The cast includes: J. O. Hoffman, A. Taylor, C. M. Gifford, Grace Dorothea Fisher, Mrs. Isabel Farrington, James Otis Porter, J. Henry Monk, Misses Catherine Holloway, Nina Gibb, Elizabeth Parson, Muriel Boyd, Helen D. Fink, Edna Ellis, Jane Simps, Bernice Holloway, Esther Gude, Elizabeth Siddons, and Mildred Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, Edith W. Kinkaid, Donald Thompson and Hugh Cackrell.

Tickets may be had at the box office of the Belasco Theater or from Mrs. A. S. Burleson, Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, Mme. Slavko Grouitch, wife of the Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.
